IPCM EXPANDS MARITIME SERVICES IN SOUTH SUMATRA THROUGH SHIP-TO-SHIP COOPERATION IN MUSI RIVER

Jakarta, March 14, 2026 – PT Jasa Armada Indonesia Tbk (IDX: IPCM), part of the Pelindo Group, continues to strengthen the expansion of national port services through the signing of a cooperation agreement with PT Penascop Maritim Indonesia in providing pilotage and tugboat services for Ship to Ship (STS) operations in the Class I Mandatory Pilotage Waters of the Outer Bar of Musi River, Palembang, South Sumatra Province.

The cooperation agreement, signed on March 4, 2026 in Palembang, South Sumatra, represents a strategic step for IPCM in expanding its operational service coverage in the South Sumatra region, which is one of the important routes for logistics distribution and national commodity trade.

Through this cooperation, IPCM will provide priority pilotage and tugboat services for Ship to Ship (STS) operations in the Class I Mandatory Pilotage Waters of the Outer Bar of Musi River, Palembang. This area is a strategic route for coal commodity distribution activities in the South Sumatra region, with a contribution of 739 million tons out of a total national production scale of 120.74 million tons, thus requiring reliable port service support with high safety standards.

President Director of PT Jasa Armada Indonesia Tbk, Shanti Puruhita, stated that this collaboration is part of IPCM's commitment to continuously increase the company's contribution in supporting the smooth flow of national logistics and strengthening IPCM's position as a reliable maritime service provider.

"This cooperation represents a strategic step for IPCM in expanding operational service coverage in regions with high port activity potential. The Musi River is one of the important logistics routes in South Sumatra, therefore support from professional pilotage and tugboat services with high safety standards is crucial. Through this collaboration, IPCM is optimistic about providing added value to service users while supporting sustainable company business growth," said Shanti.

This cooperation is also expected to further strengthen IPCM's role in supporting the smooth operation of logistics activities in the South Sumatra region while opening opportunities for maritime business development in the future.
