IPCM WINS INDONESIA BEST CSR IN PILOTAGE & TOWAGE SECTOR STRENGTHENS SUSTAINABLE COMMITMENT IN THE MARITIME SECTOR

Jakarta, May 21, 2026 – PT Jasa Armada Indonesia Tbk (IDX: IPCM), part of the Pelindo Group, once again received recognition for its commitment to implementing Social and Environmental Responsibility programs through the “8th Indonesia Best CSR Awards 2026” in the Pilotage & Towage Sector 2026 category. The award was presented at an event organized by The Iconomics in collaboration with Axia Research at the Aneka Bhakti Building, Ministry of Social Affairs of the Republic of Indonesia.

This award event is dedicated to companies considered successful in implementing CSR programs consistently, innovatively, and with tangible contributions to society.

Ridwan Budiman, Deputy Vice President of Corporate Communication, GCG and CSR of IPCM, stated, “This award serves as proof of IPCM’s commitment to building a sustainable culture of social responsibility. We view CSR not merely as an obligation, but as part of the company’s strategy to create added value for society and the environment. Moving forward, we will continue to strengthen collaboration with various stakeholders so that the benefits of CSR programs can be felt more broadly,” said Ridwan.

IPCM consistently carries out various CSR initiatives integrated with Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) principles while supporting the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). These programs include support for education, healthcare, environmental preservation, community empowerment, and the development of MSMEs around the company’s operational areas.

Through this award, IPCM hopes to continue enhancing its positive contribution to society and the environment while strengthening its commitment to implementing sustainable, collaborative CSR programs that deliver tangible impacts for all stakeholders.
