PRESS RELEASE

SUPPORTING THE SMOOTH FLOW OF NATIONAL LOGISTICS, IPCM WINS BISNIS INDONESIA LOGISTICS AWARDS 2025

Jakarta, 6 November 2025 – PT Jasa Armada Indonesia Tbk (IDX: IPCM), as part of the Pelindo Group engaged in ship piloting and towing services, remains committed to supporting the smooth flow of national logistics through service effectiveness innovations, operational efficiency, and fleet modernization. In recognition of this commitment, IPCM was awarded a special honor at the Bisnis Indonesia Logistics Awards (BILA) 2025 in the category of Outstanding Achievement in Maritime Fleet Modernization.

This prestigious award was personally received by IPCM President Director Shanti Puruhita during the award ceremony held by Bisnis Indonesia Group at Hotel Borobudur, Jakarta. The recognition serves as tangible proof of IPCM's strategic efforts to strengthen national logistics infrastructure through continuous innovation in piloting and towing services.

Shanti Puruhita stated, "This award is the result of the hard work of the entire IPCM team in delivering reliable, safe, and efficient piloting and towing services. IPCM believes that innovation and fleet modernization are key to ensuring smooth national logistics and enhancing the competitiveness of Indonesian ports on the global stage."

The Bisnis Indonesia Logistics Awards (BILA) 2025 is an event organized by Bisnis Indonesia to appreciate companies in the logistics sector and its supporting industries that demonstrate reliable and efficient performance. The judging process involves two stages: a quantitative assessment of financial performance and a qualitative evaluation by expert jurors in the field of national logistics.

"This recognition serves as motivation for IPCM to continue innovating in improving the performance and quality of piloting and towing services. IPCM is committed to being a strategic partner for port and logistics industry players, and to actively contributing to the smooth flow of goods and services across Indonesia," concluded Shanti Puruhita.
